City Seeks Members for Commissions and Boards

Snoqualmie, WA – The City of Snoqualmie is accepting applications for commissioner positions on the Arts Commission, Parks Board, and Civil Service Commission. New members will be considered and appointed by Mayor Matt Larson and confirmed by the Snoqualmie City Council.

- The Snoqualmie Arts Commission advises the City Council on public artwork. It promotes and encourages public programs to increase interest and engagement in the fine and performing arts. Commission members also work toward preservation of Snoqualmie's cultural heritage. Meetings are on the second Monday of each month at 6 p.m. at Snoqualmie City Hall.

- The Parks Board advises the City Council on the expansion and operation of city parks and recreation facilities and recreational programs. Meetings are on the third Monday of each month at 7 p.m. at Snoqualmie City Hall, 38624 SE River Street.

- The Civil Service Commission ensures equitable treatment of fire and police officers by the City of Snoqualmie. The commission conducts testing for new officers and promotional exams, and hears appeals of disciplinary actions. Meetings are on the first Wednesday of each month at 6 p.m. unless there is no pending business requiring commission action. The commission meets at the Snoqualmie Police Department, 34825 SE Douglas St.

How to Apply
Applications are available on the City website at www.cityofsnoqualmie.org; click "City Government" and then "Commissions and Boards" to download the application. Applications may be delivered to Snoqualmie City Hall, 39624 SE River Street, or mailed to Jodi Warren, City Clerk, P.O. Box 987, Snoqualmie, Washington, 98065.
