Tour Snoqualmie City Hall with Mayor Larson

Snoqualmie, WA – Mayor Matt Larson will give a tour of Snoqualmie City Hall on Wednesday, August 17 at noon. Citizens of all ages are invited to meet with Mayor Larson in the Council Chambers of City Hall at 38624 SE River Street.

Visitors will tour the offices on the first and second floors of the building and meet city employees. Mayor Larson will point out the many unique design features, explain the green building elements, and highlight the art pieces throughout the building, such as Korean celadon pottery, a glass sculpture more than 20 feet high, and many murals.

A photograph exhibit of historic Snoqualmie is currently on display at City Hall with photos from the year 1890 through the 1940s. See the Snoqualmie Depot when it was brand new, the three-story Kinsey Hotel, the Sunset Theatre, and Railroad Avenue in its dirt road and boardwalk days. There are photos of the town of Meadowbrook, the Snoqualmie Valley School District Administration Building with old-time buses, and many others. This exhibit is presented by the Snoqualmie Valley Historical Museum, where there are many more photographs and artifacts on display.

The tour and exhibit can be enjoyed by adults and children.
