Celebrate opening of Snoqualmie Community Center /YMCA

Snoqualmie Community Center/Snoqualmie Valley YMCA grand opening to include dedication, tours and open house on January 21, 2012

Snoqualmie, WA – A public grand opening of the Snoqualmie Community Center / Snoqualmie Valley YMCA is planned for Saturday, January 21, 2012 from 10:30 a.m.to 1:30 p.m.

Everyone in the Snoqualmie Valley is invited to celebrate the completion of the long-anticipated project that has culminated in a center for the community to gather for health, fitness, and fun. This event will take place in the new Snoqualmie Community Center/YMCA at 35018 SE Ridge Street on Snoqualmie Ridge.

The grand opening dedication will begin at 10:30 a.m. with Snoqualmie Mayor Matt Larson; Bob Gilbertson, President/CEO of the YMCA of Greater Seattle; and Snoqualmie Valley YMCA Executive Director Dave Mayer speaking about the project's realization and the exciting developments to come. Following the dedication, the facility will open for tours.

An open house will be hosted by the Snoqualmie Valley YMCA from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. featuring activities for all ages. YMCA staff will register new members and give tours of the Health & Well-Being Center, gym, Youth Development Center, Community Activity Room, and other facility amenities. Program information will be available about ongoing YMCA activities and special events for children, teens, and adults.

More information about the Snoqualmie Valley YMCA is posted on its Facebook page at http://www.facebook.com/SnoqualmieValleyYMCA. For more details about the grand opening event, please contact Karen Piatt at kpiatt@seattleymca.org or 206-382-4368.
