Accessible Voting Center Open Now in Renton

Snoqualmie, WA – King County voters with disabilities have the opportunity to cast a private and independent ballot for the general election at an accessible voting center rather than voting by mail.

Accessible voting centers have touch screen accessible voting units with lap paddles, audio voting, large and high-contrast text options, and more. Elections staff is available to help. Voters casting a ballot at an accessible voting center must either show a photo ID or sign a declaration.

Now Open: Elections Headquarters in Renton
919 SW Grady Way, Renton, 98057
Monday-Saturday, 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
November 6 Election Day, 7:00 a.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Other locations be open November 2, 3, 5, and 6 including Bellevue City Hall, Green River Community College, Seattle Union Station, and North Seattle Community College. Locations, dates and hours of operation, and maps are posted in the King County Accessible Voting web pages.
