City of Snoqualmie

News Release

For immediate release: July 26, 2010

Lodging tax funding applications for 2011 awards available now

Snoqualmie, WA – The City of Snoqualmie Lodging Tax Advisory Committee has opened the application process for 2011 lodging tax fund requests.

The committee is accepting proposals for tourism-related services to be provided during the calendar year 2011. Local organizations that accommodate activities for tourists and positively impact tourism in the upper Snoqualmie Valley are eligible to apply.

Guidelines and applications are posted on the city website at www.cityofsnoqualmie.org; click Government | Commissions & Boards | Lodging Tax Advisory Committee.

Applications are due no later than September 15, 2010 at 5:00 p.m. Guidelines for applications and submission are included in the funding guidelines.

Following the application process, recommendations for funding will be made by the Lodging Tax Advisory Committee with the final decision of allocation made by the Snoqualmie City Council.

The Lodging Tax Advisory Committee is pleased to have the opportunity to provide funding for projects that benefit economic development and the growth of local organizations. This program is funded through the City of Snoqualmie's share of the sales tax collected by the state on lodging rentals in Snoqualmie.
