Boeing Classic PGA Champions Tour returns for sixth year

Snoqualmie, WA – The 6th Annual Boeing Classic PGA Champions Tour will be at the TPC Snoqualmie Ridge golf course August 23 through 29. As the “Home of the Boeing Classic”, thousands of people will attend the event with even more watching it on television. Coverage will include panoramic views of the beautiful Snoqualmie Valley.

More than 70 players will participate this year including last year’s champion Loren Roberts. Highlights during the week include the Korean Air Pro-Am, Seahawks Rumble at the Ridge, Youth Clinic, Walk to Unlock the Immune System, and Grapes on the Green.

Encompass, the premier children’s and family support organization serving the Snoqualmie Valley, is once again a partner at the Boeing Classic. For the 2010 tournament, Encompass will be a beneficiary of the ongoing Birdies for Charity program. It also will host a hole at Media Day on August 9, bring children to the annual Youth Clinic on August 24, and operate a booth in the Expo Village. For more information about Encompass and its role in the tournament, visit www.encompassnw.org and click the orange ‘Birdies for Charity’ box.

Residents in Snoqualmie’s downtown and outer neighborhoods may pick up tickets at Snoqualmie City Hall, 38624 SE River Street, beginning July 26 on business days between 9am and 5pm. Please bring a city water utility bill or other utility bill for verification of residency. Each household is eligible for up to four tickets.

Snoqualmie Ridge residents will have the opportunity to receive tickets from the Snoqualmie Ridge Residential Owners Association (ROA). The ROA will distribute the tickets at Community Park, 35016 Ridge Street, on August 19, 20, 23 and 24 from 10am-12pm and 4pm-6pm each day. For details, please see the ROA website at www.ridgeroa.com.

More information about the Boeing Classic, including special events, players, sponsors and sponsorship opportunities, beneficiaries, and more, please go to www.boeingclassic.com.
