

Snoqualmie Valley Chamber of Commerce

News Release

For Immediate Release: January 30, 2013

Bring Your Love to the Heart of Snoqualmie...

(you'll love it as much as we do!)

Snoqualmie, WA – Bring the one you love to downtown Snoqualmie from February 8th through Valentine's Day on February 14th to find out what makes it the heart of our unique community.

Indulge your sweetheart with eclectic music, scrumptious food, delightful art, fashion, and distinctive gifts - all are waiting for you at this Valentine's week of celebration, so different from the usual big-city offerings.

The celebrations begin on Friday, February 8th with music at The Black Dog Arts Café. And don't worry about the kids because Simply Anne Party Boutique has a Drop & Dash Night where you can drop them off (they'll even get dinner and desert!).

Then feel lots of local love on Saturday, February 9th, from noon to 6:00pm. Join us for treats, kids' activities and specials, and live entertainment including:

- Gift shopping at Carmichaels Variety & Hardware, Down to Earth Flowers and Gifts, and Nothing To Wear Boutique & Professional Spray-On Tans
- Craft and jewelry-making at Simply Anne Party Boutique
- An Art Walk hosted by the Snoqualmie Arts Commission
- Barbershop quartet "Cheers" at the Snoqualmie falls Candy Factory (4:00-6:00pm)

The love continues to spread all through the week, including Valentine's Day dinners at Gianfranco Ristorante, The Woodman Lodge and The Black Dog. Look for more specials and discounts at participating retailers displaying For the Love of Snoqualmie balloons.

Celebrate the "For the Love of Snoqualmie" week, and discover the pride we, the Downtown Snoqualmie Merchants Association, the Snoqualmie Arts Commission and The Snoqualmie Valley Chamber of Commerce, have in our town.

As Kim Ewing, owner of The Black Dog Arts Café on Railroad Avenue says, “Surrounded by organic landscapes, our community is romantic by nature. Our skyscrapers are mountains and our high rises are the trees. The sounds of downtown include clucking chickens, crowing roosters, laughing children and the haunting refrain of that lone train whistle. Here is where the pace slows down and quirky small town charm thrives.”

Show your love, “For the Love of Snoqualmie.”

For more information, contact The Snoqualmie Valley Chamber of Commerce at info@snovalley.org or 425-888-6362. And stop by our offices at the Visitor Information Center in Historic Snoqualmie at 38767 SE River Street.

#

Contact:

Ross Bentley

Snoqualmie Valley Chamber of Commerce

ceo@snovalley.org

www.snovalley.org

425-888-6362