A Night of Safety at the Annual Bike Safety Rodeo and National Night Out August 1, 6 p.m., Cascade View Elementary School

This year the Tanner Jeans Memorial Bicycle Safety Rodeo will be combined with the National Night Out event for an evening of safety and fun. The big event will be at Cascade View Elementary School, 34816 SE Ridge Street, beginning at 6 p.m. The rodeo strives to keep every child safe through bicycle education. National Night Out is a nationwide event designed to bring communities together to create safer, better places to live. This is a great opportunity to get to know your neighbors!

Activities include:

- Bike safety instruction and obstacle courses
- Bike inspections
- Helmet inspections; replacement for those whose helmet does not pass
- Bouncy houses, face painters, scavenger hunt, and water activities
- Free hot dogs, snacks, and beverages

Mayor Matt Larson Discusses Growth and Development in New Video Series

As planned growth continues in Snoqualmie - boosting the local economy while maintaining the city's high quality of life - Mayor Matt Larson discusses topics about current and proposed development in a new video series, including the background and future of the new hotel planned for the Snoqualmie Ridge Business Park. View parts 1-4 on the City's YouTube channel at bit.ly/youtubeSnoqualmie. There is also a video about the status of improvements to the I-90 / SR 18 interchange. More to come!

Picnic Shelters with BBQs Available for Summer Parties

Picnic shelters are available to rent at Azalea, Centennial, Curtis, Railroad, Riverview and Jeanne Hansen Parks. The picnic shelters include barbecues and electricity and are perfect for birthdays, reunions and team gatherings. Half- and full-day reservations are available. Please reserve as early as possible as the parks are very busy in the summer.

Rates, rental information, and forms are on the city website: bit.ly/SnoqParkRec

New Website on the Way

A new city website is under development and will go live in the fall. The website will be service-oriented and highly accommodating to Snoqualmie residents, business owners and visitors to the area. Features will include a new document library, an online forms and applications center, streamlined navigation, a superior search function, and language translation. There will also be a mobile app so you can access everything you need at any time in any place. Do you have ideas for what is needed on the new website? Please send your ideas to info@ci.snoqualmie.wa.us. Thanks!

We Are One of 5 Best Washington Small Towns to Unplug

An article in a recent edition of 1889 Washington's Magazine, a new bi-monthly publication devoted to Washington State, named Snoqualmie among the "5 Best Washington Small Towns to Unplug." The article lists attributes that include the natural beauty of Snoqualmie Falls along with the history of the Snoqualmie Depot. In addition, the article mentions several local businesses and activities. Read the full article at <https://1889mag.com/explore>.

Snoqualmie Named Among 10 Safest Washington Cities

The National Council for Home Safety and Security ranked Snoqualmie in the top 10 for Safest Cities in Washington based on FBI Uniform Crime Report statistics along with population data and internal research by the organization. "We are pleased to be recognized as one of the safest communities in Washington," said Snoqualmie Police Chief Perry Phipps. "Our belief and commitment to "No Call Too Small" along with our dedication in serving our citizens is hopefully responsible for our low crime rate and reflective of being a safe place to live, work, and visit."
