City Council Duties & Compensation

The Snoqualmie City Council is the legislative authority of the City of Snoqualmie. The City operates under a Strong Mayor/Council form of government. The seven-member City Council serves as the legislative body of the City. The Council is responsible for setting policy, adopting the annual budget, adopting laws, determining the services to be provided and the funding levels for those services, and confirming the Mayor's appointment of citizens to its advisory boards and commissions and designated city employees.

The duties of a City Councilmember will likely involve an average minimum commitment of 40 hours per month for preparation, participation, and attendance at various meetings and community activities. Beyond the broad duties previously mentioned, Councilmember duties include, but are not limited to:

- Attendance is required at regular City Council meetings, which are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month, from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm and occasionally later. From time to time, the City Council or Mayor may call special City Council meetings to handle city business.
- Councilmembers are expected to serve on Council Committees regularly scheduled at a time mutually agreed upon. Councilmembers often serve voluntarily on regional boards and commissions, and to represent the City Council at various community functions. These various meetings and functions occur normally during the evenings and occasionally on some weekends, and during some week days.
- Some travel is expected locally, regionally, and/or within the State of Washington, involving various organizations which the City of Snoqualmie is a member. Councilmembers may also at their discretion travel and attend training, education and/or participate in other organizations at the local, regional, state, or in some instances on the national level. Travel, education, and training expenses for local, regional, state, and national, activities are reimbursed in accordance with City policy applicable to all employees and city officials, subject to the budgetary limit set for each councilmember and for the city council as a whole.

The monthly Councilmember salary is currently $500 per month.

Interview Questions

Each Candidate should come to the interview prepared to speak to the following questions:

1. Why do you want to serve on the City Council?
2. What experiences, talents or skills do you bring to the Council and community that you would like to highlight?
3. Are there any regional issues or forums in which you have a particular interest or expertise? (E.g. transportation, water supply, human services, water quality, fiscal management, solid waste, parks & open space, etc.)
4. Do you want to serve on the City Council because of a particular local issue on which you want to work or are your interests more broadly distributed?

The Council may ask additional questions of candidates during the interview.
