City Seeks Public Input on All-Inclusive Playground Kick-off Meeting Held Thursday, October 12, 7 pm at City Hall

Snoqualmie, WA – The City of Snoqualmie is launching an all-inclusive playground project and wants your input. Goals for building this community playground include accessibility for all children along with inclusive spaces that are developmentally appropriate for those with and without disabilities.

The playground will be built at Centennial Fields located at 39903 SE Parks Street in Snoqualmie (adjacent to Meadowbrook Farm). Bruce Dees and Associates has been selected to guide the City through this project. Although the City has funded the design phase of the project and a portion of the playground, we will be seeking your help in exploring fundraising ideas.
